

Annual Probe College Fair at CEC Nov. 5

NTH STAFF REPORTS
education@newnan.com

The Central Educational Center will host representatives from more than 80 colleges, schools and universities during its Probe College Fair and Open House on Nov. 5, from 6-8 p.m.

The event is free and open to the public. Parents and students are invited to learn about postsecondary options and to speak directly with representatives from various institutions.

Educational institutions will be offering information about their programs, courses of study and admissions process.

Students and parents will also have the opportunity to learn more about academic and career-based courses for high school students at the CEC Charter and Career Academy, as well as work-based learning opportunities offered through CEC.

Probe is an annual program of college fairs and guidance counselor workshops that are held throughout the state of Georgia. The program is managed by the Georgia Education Articulation Committee (GEAC), whose mission is to disseminate information and stimulate interest in postsecondary education for students in Georgia.

The Georgia Student Finance Commission will also be in attendance to talk about financial aid opportunities like the HOPE scholarship.

CEC is located at 160 Martin Luther King Drive in Newnan. For more information, contact CEC at 678-423-2000, Ext. 292, or email Dr. Dawn Revere at dawn.revere@cowetaschools.net .
